

XT3700

Octane's popular XT3700 is known for delivering the absolute best-feeling workouts. Directing comfortable movement and flow while providing upper body ergonomics is what makes the XT3700 an optimal choice for a variety of exercisers. Users can also fuel their workouts with advanced programming to drive results further than before. Octane Fitness ellipticals give exercisers the ability to challenge themselves with intense workouts, yet still feel good both during and after their routines.
